About the TOWNS Award

Awarded to Filipinas age 21 to 50 years old who have shown outstanding dedication, exceptional talent, and careers/lives that have contributed in a positive way to society.

Location Philippines

Presented by TOWNS Foundation

First awarded 1974

The Outstanding Women in Nation's Service (TOWNS) award is presented by the TOWNS Foundation to outstanding Filipino women ages 21 to 50 years old who have contributed positively to strengthening national capability and shaping the nation's future and served as catalysts for economic, social and cultural development, national security and national unity. The award is given every three years during the last week of October and the search for these women is held nationwide for a period of one year. Since its inception in 1974, TOWNS has cited 166 women.

TOWNS Foundation Inc. is a national organization of dynamic and effective women who by their common shared activities help transform the lives of the Filipinos. All TOWNS awardees become members of TOWNS Foundation.

In 1995, the TOWNS Foundation was incorporated to support and harness the talent and capabilities of the TOWNS awardees in activities that influence national issues.
